

Leo seamless armchair

What we valued the most was to connect the surfaces of the chair as a whole as much as possible. The sense of unity in the armchair are generated by the details of natural and organic connection. The addition of fullness in this thin design delivers a condensed sense of tension and softness. Our goal was softness and a fabric design that would embrace the sense of tension and dignity as an upholstered armchair. Well-balanced decorum and details are connected by one stitch line as a single answer.
