

Leonardo swing armchair

This chair embraces a curved line like a slow waltz. We wanted to value edgy, mature dignity without making it too soft. When seated, both arms rest naturally on the armrests. The shape of the seating surface narrows from the front to the back and is designed to gently wrap around the back.

The shell is made up of curved lines so that the armrests and backrest look slim but voluminous without increasing in thickness. We carefully adjusted the thickness to avoid a heavy look.
