

Linate sofa

Virtually no basic specification changes have been made to our Linate sofa since 2001, released original design. Supported by a solid base of rectangular-section wood for the legs, the frame evokes the strength and efficiency of Japanese-style construction, the simple backrest, and the seat configuration. We have carefully upgraded various details.

We left the gentle swell and beading on the surface of the wooden legs as they were and added piping to the sofa body to bring out the silhouette of the form. While delicately adjusting the simple design and small details, we allowed it to succeed the beautiful Linate of the past.
