

Lotus moon

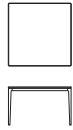

Lotus Moon is a table, resembling a large lotus leaf, with a delicate upright rim at the edge of the tabletop. The rim naturally rises from the tabletop, since it is carved and smoothly polished the inside of the solid board. There is a Japanese tradition to dine by using a small personal table, such as a gozen. The rim of the small personal tables prevent spillage, just like trays. We desired to create a presence resembling the traditional Japanese personal table, by likening the large tabletop to a lotus leaf.
