

Nightfly chair

The gently curved lines of the rear legs and stiles, and the long armrests that extend in a circular arc from the stiles create the look of a lounge chair for mature person spend relaxing time. A marked feature of this chair is its substantial depth, but the design is firmly focused on practicality by carefully positioning the backrest for comfortable support.

To successfully perform the joining methods applied to the various parts and meet the exacting specifications demanded for the special joint, all the skill of our artisans and their characteristically Japanese dexterity and perseverance are necessary.
