

The sensual ladder back chair

The sensual ladder back chair is comparatively compact in size, yet we focused on making it soft and relaxing to sit on as if being enveloped by the back and seat cushions. The back and seat frames are strengthened with several pieces of louver in solid wood, and while fulfilling the functional role of securing the cushions, they also make the chair look well-designed. It features a new chair structure that is completed by attaching cushions to a complete wooden frame.
